

Course syllabus

1. Jump into the science world

- Defining and working science

(= plan, develop and publish your science work)

- Make your science ready

(= publish your science work)

2. Present your science to the biased audience

(= science conference talks / proposals / fellowships)

Working assignment No.1

3. Present your science to general public

(= science outreach events / science education)

Working assignment No.2

4. Communicating science to policymakers

(= writing plans/proposals)

Working assignment No.3

5. Writing about science for the public

(= convert science process to science storytelling)

6. Evaluating science and its practices

Working assignment No.4
